Para 8 12 to 32 of the office note summarize the documentary evidence produced in the case a perusal of which will show that the matt could not substantiate its claim to these Birsas. The previous ^{after an elaborate submission} ~~may come~~ ^{is} based on opinion that the documentary evidence filed by the Kundapur Vyasaraya Swamy matt is not conclusive to prove that the matt is entitled to the use of these insignia, and had used of them for over 50 years (vide para 7 of the typed memo).

The officers suggested that an opportunity might be given to Sri Kundapur V. matt to adduce evidence to show that it used these Birsas in several places without objection for years past. In view of the fact that the matt failed to adduce satisfactory evidence in support of its claim to these Birsas.

As the papers now produced by Mr. V. R.
Vijayab have been looked into 63 The long typed petition that has been sent by him can be summarized into the following representations:

(1) That the S. Dale & Kundapur Vyasaraya matts are branches of the same matt, and are therefore entitled to the same honors.

In fact the history
of the matts shows
that the Kundapur
Mutt is the original & the other matt is branch.

(2) The honors which were in enjoyment of the Kundapur Mutt were suspended on the mere complaint of the S. Dale matt without any enquiry.

(3) That in Samad or Rabadang it was not customary to give details of the branches,

come into vogue, it is seen

- (4) The Kundapur matt had the misfortune of having incompetent agents, some of whom played into the hands of the other more fortunate matt.
- (5) The properties & debts of the Kundapur matt which had been confiscated as a result of the misrepresentation of the Sorala matt were handed back in 1739 after due enquiry, which shows that the matt had been badly treated at the instance of the other matt.
- (6) Some lands were subsequently granted to the K. matt.
- (7) A spy of the Sorala matt infiltrated himself into the confidence of the Kundapur matt and stole certain valuable records.

45 The Kundapur Vyasarayaswami Mutt at Abhur in the Channapatna Taluk continues to press for the grant of the following honours:-

- (1) Drum on camel,
- (2) Green Flag;
- & (3) Green umbrellas.

46 In 1925 the rival Sosale Vyasaraya-swami Mutt contested the claim of the Abhur Mutt to the use of these honours and the matter was enquired into by the then Muzrai Commissioner Mr. Chandy. The Kundapur Vyasarayaswami Mutt did not produce conclusive evidence to establish that it was entitled to these honours on the strength of either sannads or Rahadaris, or of proof of enjoyment for a long period. Accordingly, the claim of this Mutt to these honours was disallowed.

47 The Kundapur Mutt has now made another representation and the Muzrai Commissioner recommends that the orders already passed may be ~~reconsidered~~ re-considered and that these honours may be allowed to this Mutt. The honours asked for are not Royal honours, but only Special Honours; and they have been allowed to other Mutts of similar standing in and outside the State. The Abbur Mutt is a very old institution and ~~in fact~~, I understand that according to tradition, it is a more ancient institution than the Sosale Mutt, and it has been accorded the honour of a first day's Biksha of Rs 50.

48 Both call themselves Vyasaraya Mutts and the withdrawal from the Abbur Mutt of the honours under consideration at the instance of the rival Sosale Mutt, is represented by the disciples of the former Mutt as having brought it down in the public estimation. This Mutt appears to have been enjoying these honours though it is unable to produce documentary evidence in support of enjoyment.

49 The honours asked for are not of great importance and have been allowed in similar cases. I think that, in these circumstances, the request of the Mutt might be complied with as recommended by the Muzrai Commissioner. It is possible that the Sosale Vyasarayaswami Mutt will represent that the Abbur Mutt is not en-

Final Note by the First Member of Council.

Subject:—

Grant of certain honours to the Sri Kundapur Vyasaraaya Swami Mutt.

K, L, A

56 This is a Madhwa Mutt with its head quarters at Kundapur in the Chennapatna Taluk and it has been repeatedly ^xurging for the restoration of the following Honours:—

1. Drum on camel.
2. Green Flags.
3. Green Umbrellas.

2. In 1925 the rival Sosale Mutt contested the claim of this mutt to the use of these honours and as the Kundapur Mutt could not produce satisfactory documentary proof of enjoyment of these honours, its claim to their use was disallowed.

3. The Mutt has now made another representation in the matter and its request is supported by the Muzrai Commissioner. Both the Sosale and Abburi Mutts call themselves Vyasaraaya Mutts and the exact relation of the one to the other is not ascertainable. Tradition, however associates Vyasaraaya in some form or other with both these Mutts. The Abburi Mutt appears to be as ancient an institution^a, if not more ancient than the Sosale Mutt and though the former could not produce documentary evidence of using the honours under consideration, it would appear that it was enjoying them until its claim was contested by the Sosale Mutt. It is not open to a Mut^x to say what honours should or should not be allowed to another Mutt.

4. The honours asked for are not Royal Honours but only Special Honours which have been allowed in special cases. As stated above, the Mutt is an ancient institution and is allowed the honour of a first class B. A. of 1900 in 1910.

of all the circumstances of the case, the ^{request of the Mutt} ^{by the Mutt Committee.}
I think, might be complied with as requested. The Mutt Committee agrees in this view.

Sir,

This mutt no: 1044 dated 27th February 1928 regarding the mamool of using certain religious viz. antelope, deer and green flags and umbrellas etc., also by this Channaspatna undapur Original Vyasaraja mutt.

I beg to submit again that the Revenue Commission or who held an enquiry did neither value the received evidence properly nor held hold a sufficiently detailed enquiry, as the serious flood damages of Channaspatna and Mysore District were then in progress, all his attention, but decided the case in favour of according to his own imagination. It was also to be understood that the case is one that should be taken before a Civil Court. In Mysore Province the Mazha Sahib Sahib, performs almost all the functions of a Civil Court, in respect of its religious institutions.

An immediate appeal too could not be referred before you as I, the Chief A. M. had to be absent from Mysore Province for nearly three years till now. I would like to mention the present Mazha Sahib who has been touring in other parts of India since his installation on the Mazha Sahib seat on the 15th. October 1920, intends returning shortly to Mysore Province for attending to court in Mysore and incidental to the death on the 1st September 1921, of his predecessor Guru.

Therefore I pray now once more that you will be kind enough to reconsider the case which has been handled imperfectly.

The exhibits submitted then, in greater detail by 1920 and also personally and various others kept ready, but not cared to be examined then, will, if fully examined now, show that several of the titles were enjoyed, the various titles and insignia which they now too enjoy in spite of the former official Mahadaries not mentioning them in detail. Even letters written by the highest officers like Nawabs, in olden days, do not bear verifiable and accurate dates, facts and clear signature of the authorities and other details which modern officers would demand.

Hence judging persons, accounts, and records of olden days, from today's point of view and demanding a far stricter kind of evidence that was not at all in vogue centuries and decades ago, as modern enlightened officers seem to often need and unjustly demand ^{is} ~~in~~ primarily, reliance on the security also, since submitted from various places and from various respectable persons, besides a host of other records in the Mutt which though produced in person during the enquiry, were not at all examined; And -----

(2) that impartial favourable and final orders may be kindly issued in as much as no new honour dearful to any one else is coveted but only the ~~good~~ enjoyment of what was enjoyed for nearly 400 years by this Mutt (and was prevented unjustly by the government order of 1871 of the Muzrai Department) is requested to be restored.

Begging to be kindly excused for the trouble given and thanking you,

I beg to remain Sir,

The Dewan to his highness

the Maharaja of Mysore,

B a n g a l o r e.

Sir,

This Mutt No:1244 dated 8th.Feb.1924 regarding the mamool of using certain Insignia viz."Vantemale nagari & green flags and umbrellas etc.," also by this Channapatna kundapur Original Vyasaraaja Mutt.

I beg to submit again that the Revenue Commissioner who held an enquiry did neither value the recorded evidence properly nor hold a sufficiently detailed enquiry as the serious flood damages of shimoga and ysore Districts we then engaging all his attention, but decided the case r according to his own imagination. He was also of opinion that the case is one that should be taken before a Civil Court. In Mysore Province the Mazari department performs almost all the functions of a Civil Court, in respect of its religious institutions.

An immediate appeal too could not be preferred before you as I, the Chief Agent had to be absent from Mysore Province for nearly three years till now. His Holiness the present Satadhipathi who has been touring in northern parts of India since his installation on the Pontifical Seat on the 15th. October 1920, intends returning shortly, to Mysore Province for attending to certain ceremonies incidental to the death, on the 1st September 1927, of his predecessor Guru.

Therefore I pray now once more that you will be kind enough to reconsider the case which has been handled imperfectly.

The exhibits submitted then, in greater detail by post and also personally and various others kept ready, but not cared to be examined then, will, if kindly examined now, show that several of the Putts were enjoying the various titles and insignia which they now too enjoy in spite of the former official Rahadaries not mentioning them in detail. Even letters written by the highest officers like Dewans, in olden days, do not bear verifiable and accurate dates, facts and clear signature of the authorities and other details which modern officers would demand.

Hence judging persons, accounts, and records of olden days, from today's point of view and demanding a precision or kind of evidence that was not at all in vogue centuries and decades ago, as modern enlightened officers seem to often need and unjustly demand is primarily ruinous to the securing securing of justice in those cases, where not at all institutions and such old records relate to them, or concerned.

Mutt

All the swamys of this, were absent for several years at a time in North and South India and no letter to get even common mahadars and ^{much more} the detailed mahadars by adding their insignia all in detail and one after another. just as other Mathadhipathies have done vide numerous additional exhibits now submitted herewith as well as in person. This mutt swamies opened their eyes when government obstructed them on the application of their rival mutt. The most natural inference from a perusal of all these exhibits is that in the olden days delicacy and precision of the kind now demanded was not aimed at both by the government and the mutts and other parties.

You know also full well from the recently manifested enthusiasm of the public during the Viceregal visit, Jubilee Processions and the procession of His Holiness Sri Sree Jagadguruji, now the laya subjects and disciples wish to see their viceroys, their maharajas and their curas honoured to the greatest extent possible.

Therefore I pray (1) that the paternal government in the uzrai Department, itself would extend the fullest calm and impartial consideration possible, and after the perusal of the records referred to herein set right matters which have been unfavourably decided some 18 years ago, entirely upon the version merely of the rival branch of Vyasaraja mutt at Sosale, notwithstanding the irrefutable evidence of numerous reports of the then Amildars of Anesai, Channapattana and Nankannalli etc., and the then Deputy Commissioner P.D.J. Kumaraswamy Naik B.A., of Bangalore District based upon mahajars of local people including disciples even of the rival mutt, present at the time and numerous other mahajars also also, since submitted from various places of the Government respectable persons, besides a number of other officials the Court which though produced in for on during the enquiry, were not at all examined; And -----

(2) that impartial favourable and final orders may be kindly issued in as much as ^{no} ~~the~~ new honour is not to any one else is coveted but only the enjoyment of which was enjoyed for nearly 100 years by the Court (and was prevented unjustly by the Government order no. 10/1 of the Mazraa Department) is requested to be referred.

Begging to be kind, excused for the trouble given and thanking you,

From

G. D'Souza, Esq., B.A., B.L.,

Muzrai Commissioner in Mysore,

MUZ

Bangalore.

D1088

To

B. Srinivasa Iyengar, Esq., B.A., B.L.,

Secretary to the Government of His Highness

the Maharaja of Mysore, Financial Department.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.1227/Muz. dated 1st February 1928, forwarding for report the applications received from the ----- Swamigalu and the Honorary Agent of the Sri Kundapur Vyasarayaswami matha for parading Drum on camel and green flags and umbrella etc., I have the honor to state as follows:--

2. The grounds under which a reconsideration of the order ----- previously passed is sought for are (i) that the then Muzrai Commissioner who held an enquiry neither valued the recorded evidence properly nor held a sufficiently detailed enquiry as the serious flood damages of Shimoga and Mysore Districts were engaging all his attention; (ii) that the then Muzrai Commissioner was of opinion -- that the case was one that should be taken before the Civil Court, notwithstanding the fact that in the Mysore Province the Muzrai --- Department performs almost all the functions of a Civil Court in respect of its religious institutions, and (iii) that the exhibits etc., filed on behalf of the Matha were not at all examined.

Hence they urge that in as much as no new honour & equal to the privileges of others has been asked for and as only the -- mamul enjoyment of what was enjoyed previously has been requested to be restored, the matter may be enquired into and favourable orders passed.

3. It seems to me that the case is a simple one and no elaborate enquiry and examination of documents are needed. The main ----- contention of the Sri Sosale matha seems to be that it descended - from the great Sri Vyasarayana, the founder of the matha, whereas the Sri Abhur Matha came into existence at the time of one Sri Anara

Sridhara Thirtharu, that the insignias in question were acquired by the former as marks of special honour by the Emperor of Delhi nearly 700 years ago and as such no one else is either entitled to or has any authority to use them and that the honors having been granted by a different Government altogether and acted upon by all Governments in South India as belonging exclusive to the matha, this grant has to be respected by other Governments.

The contention of the Sri Sosala Matha and more particularly the concluding portion seems to be unavowedly untenable in view of the admitted fact that the Sovereign of the country is the ----- fountain of all honours and that His Highness the Maharaja may -- in his unfettered discretion and as a mark of royal favour confer upon any individual or mathadhipathi any honour or insignia and no one can have any legitimate grievance against any such grant.

4. Since the passing of the Government Order of 31st March 1925 rejecting the claim of the Kundapur Matha, the Pale-Honnur Matha in the Koppa Taluk and the Kanchi Kamakoti Vatha of Kumbakonam -- have been allowed the use of పం. పి. మల్లెత్తనసూరి and శంకర వక్త్ర and ---- Nagari on camel, respectively, (vide G.O.Nos.1521/M.F.249-25-2 -- dated 29th June 1926 and 576-79/M.F.400-26-4 dated 12th October 1927) and it is a significant fact that the Sosale Matha which lays so much stress to the exclusive enjoyment of these Birudus should not have raised its voice against the grant.

In addition to the two Mathas named above, the use of పం. పి. మల్లెత్తనసూరి and పం. పి. శంకర వక్త్ర had been previously conceded to the Thothadri Matha in the Minnavelly District and Gowdaykere Ramaphapuri Matha in the Chinnai Kanahalli Taluk, respectively, (vide Rahadari No.1956/M.F. 624-12-2 dated 5th May 1913 and Government Order No.533/M.F.401-10-5 dated 23rd August 1912)

The use of శంకర వక్త్ర and శంకర వక్త్ర and of శంకర వక్త్ర alone have been allowed to the Turgu Matha and Nayanaja Ashatriya Guru, respectively (Vide Rahadari dated 1st July 1907 and Revenue Secretary's letter No.1246/M.F.230-23-2 dated 12th March 1924 to the Muzrai Commissioner).

5. In view of the above it is not understood as to why the Sosale Matha should have any objection to the use of these insignias by the Swamigalu of the Kundapur Matha. More-over, the grant of the honours in question to the Kundapur Matha would not in the least affect the - at Sosale, to the Government of H.H. the Maharaja of Mysore (complaining that the Channapatna Kundapur Vidyanagara Karnataka Simhasanadhiroodha Vyasaraja's Mutt was usurping its titles, insignia etc.) contained a serious and even a malicious misrepresentation.

Though the misrepresentation made by the Sosale V.R.V.S. Mutt explicitly was:-

1. That the Channapatna, Kundapur Vyasaraja Mutt had no right to use, the insignia of Ventemle Nagare and green flags and green umbrellas,

Yet this petition also insinuated,

ii. That the Sosale V.R.V.S. mutt is the only Vyasaraja Mutt in existence.

iii. That the right of using these insignia is exclusively its own.

iv. That this Channapatna - Kundapur Vyasaraja Mutt is not a Vyasaraja Mutt.

2. These insinuations become plain and also glaring on a perusal of:-

a. The Sosale V.R.V.S. mutt nirupa (letter) dated Soumya 1909 to an influential gentleman of the Salem Dist., not to allow the Ch.K.V. Mutt to call itself - Vyasaraj Mutt and work against the interests of this Mutt as far as possible and to help the Sosale V.R.V.S. mutt to aggrandise ^{even} what could never rightly belong to it. Not a single line of such obtrusive misrepresentations can ever be traced to this Ch.K.V. mutt.

b. The petition of the (instigated) Kundapur ryots.

c. The petition of the (instigated) Madura people.

High Court. Against parties and even the Secretary of the State for India are represented to be useless by the Sosale V. R.V.S. Mutt. Latest opinion of a famous High Court Vakil in Madras - obtained is also noted in EAA.

E. B.

Underlined portions (a) to (h) indicate malice and kinds of attempts made in various directions (though ultimately useless.) There can be no more absurd attempt in the face of such conclusive documents as the inscription granting (E.C) this Boodinatta inam to this Ch.K.V. Mutt guru and British (E.D) Court decisions.

E. This petition lead to the miscarriage of justice this time also, just as on some former occasions.

EE. of 1726A.D, & E.F.of 1733A.D.
para 15 to 19-50.

4. The trouble caused this time has not ended even though 20 years have rolled away.
And two Mathadhipathies of Ch.K.V. Mutt have succumbed to the sorrow due to the disgrace caused to this mutt, by the erroneous prohibitive order caused to be issued merely by the misrepresentation of one ill-advised Mathadipathie contained in the above petition without proper enquiry at the time. ^{vi} the Muzarai Dept. order No. 4874 dated 30-4-1908 practically prohibiting the use of the insignia of beating Nagari drums placed on camels and holding of green flags and green umbrellas etc. during processions even though this mutt had been enjoying them for over 400 years and from even before the Sosale V.R.V.S. mutt came into existence (nearly 350 years ago)

E.G.1.

5. According to the ~~the~~ natural course of events the Ch.K.V. Mutt should have been asked:-

- (a) to show cause as to why this mutt should not be prevented from using - these insignia as requested by the Sosale V.R.V.S. mutt in the above petition.
- (b) And the Sosale V.R.V.S. mutt also asked to show how it claims the exclusive right for itself of using those insignia before issuing any prohibitive order.

E.G.

However the Ch.K.V. Mutt was - summarily and provisionally prevented from using the insignia granted 425 years ago by the Emperor of Delhi.

E.H..Chadrilacharrya charita of Vidya Ratnakara.

6. The Sosale V.R.V.S. mutt after securing the prohibitive orders gloated so much over this success obtained through misrepresentation that it printed the prohibitive Govt. order No. 4874 dated 30-4-08 etc. and commanded its disciples also in a printed circular dated Keelaka Magha Bahula Dwadasi to obstruct this Ch.K.V. mutt from using these insignia wherever this mutt may use them. E.I.

Since then representations after representations are being made by the incompetent Vaidika and other selfish or mercenary agents of this much aggrieved Ch.K.V. Mutt in half hearted or unbusiness-like manners at fits and starts to redress the grievance caused by the Govt. order No. 4874 dated - 30-4-1908 passed with the speed of lightning on the mere presentation of a petition - by the Sosale V.R.V.S. mutt without due - enquiry and also without waiting for and - considering even the official mahazars etc. of Anekal people consisting of disciples of various mutts and castes including the disciples of Sosale V.R.V.S. mutt itself which the then Amildar of Anekal taluk and the then - Deputy Commissioner Mr. B.J. Kumaraswamy Naick of Bangalore district too submitted in April 1909 or thereabouts stating that this Ch.K.V. mutt has also been in the enjoyment of these mamool insignia etc. for centuries past.

7. However, feeling naturally diffident of its success from merely presenting the above petition the Sosale V.R.V.S. Mutt also offered itself voluntarily to produce records in support of its claims in a petition dated 6-5-1909 if one month's time be given through its advocate .

E.K..

8. However even after 15 to 16 years this V.R.V.S. Mutt could produce no direct and clear authority to prove the exclusive right conferred upon it for using these insignia. (but only pressed its claims in indirect manners and strangely enough also succeeded.)

9. After 16 years delay and pretension the Sosale V.R.V.S. Mutt has produced only a private letter of condolence written by H.H. Krishnaraja Wodiyar III when the swamy of Sosale V.R.V.S. mutt was obstructed by the Mohamadans from using these insignia for the first time in Seringapatam and his Holiness sought the sympathy & help of ~~and~~ H.H. the Maharaja Krishnarajawodiyar III instead of seeking redress from the then Government of the Chief Commissioner.

especially (e)

E.M.

The Ch.K.V. Mutt having never been thus obstructed by any body till 1909 A.D. no representations were ever made by it earlier.

This letter from H.H. The ^{maharajah} Krishnarajawodiyar III too was written in the year 1851 A.D. where-as the Rahadaries were being issued by the then Government of the Chief Commissioner of Mysore (the chief authority for issuing official - Rahadaries) . These Rahadaries of 1839-1841 to the Sosale V.R.V.S. Mutt do not make any mention whatsoever of these insignia nor of any insignia whatever which the Sosale V.R.V.S.

mutt says it did enjoy and that too exclusively E.N.
in the years 1823-51. This letter is more ^{than} E.O.
a letter of condolence to the swamy who was obstructed and is not an order any body to obey.
In fact, it is during only ~~in~~ 1859, 1873 and - E.P.
1913 that the Sosale V.R.V.S. mutt somehow E.Q.
inserted these and other insignia after the E.R.
above mentioned ~~abstraction-of~~ abstraction of 1851 A.D. in its Rahadaries. And the Govt.
of the Chief Commissioner, also had it appears, remarked that previous rahadaries i.e., even those granted by H.H. Krishnaraja-wodyar, III did not show these and other insignia claimed and much discussion took place and the Sosale V.R.V.S. Mutt was asked to produce authorities.
But yet without producing any authority somehow it secured the insertion of these insignia.
(N.B. Dewan's vernacular records may contain E.S. these facts. As exact dates etc. cannot be found out now copies of these records have not been supplied to this mutt.) So only verbal versions are now mentioned.

Even this letter of H.H. Krishnaraja Wodyar III relied upon, as the chief authority E.L. states merely that the Raghavendra swami mutt M.
which had tried to userp these insignia had no right for using these insignia but only - the Vyasaraja mutt (as opposed to Raghavendra swami ~~was~~ or Sumateendra mutt) had them. They do not show any exclusive right to the Sosale Vyasaraja Mutt.

It is perfectly clear that the rahadaries issued till about that time viz., by ~~the~~ H.H.
the Maharaja ~~EEEE~~ Krishnarajawodyar III and Government documents were very brief indeed. These were not at all exact and full. It appears that the insertion of such details as are now being inserted were considered demeaning in those olden days.

Even one or a few words of order from the authorities (Maharajas etc.) in a Rahadari or other document^s were construed in those olden days to include all that was from mamool or - (otherwise enjoyed) mamools. Rahadaries of ^{maybe conferred} various mutts issued between 1823-1841 with the same Rahadaries drawn up in subsequent years. Also the rahadaries of Sosale V.R.V.S. mutt and Ch.K.V. Mutt as Juxtaposed for ready reference.

E.U.
The comparative statements showing Rahadaries of all mutts with and without details.

~~See~~..

E.T.

No new honours were conferred by any authority since the years 1823- to 1841 upon Sosale V.R.V.S. mutt. But yet the details in rahadaries have later on swollen by numerous additions. Therefore what insignia and perphernalia were implied in former rahadaries as simple mamools came to be detailed and explicitly stated later on as the tendency to disputes and precisions increased. Some mutts employed agents who could add honors after honors to the Rahadaries of their gurus while this Ch.K.V. Mutt which was touring in distant tracts away from Mysore and had employed no such competent agents and did not even wait and get rahadaris did lag behind and left its rahadaris in a condition of stagnation, not - because this Ch.K.V. Mutt did not possess and enjoy these and other honours and insignia but, because the old practice was not to mention them in detail.

Even
states so.

However in spite of brief Rahadaries all the mutts were allowed to continue to use these and other insignia according to ascertained old mamools, Old mamools being the guides in deciding such cases.

[It must in this connection be borne in mind that neither people nor even Government officers of those olden days knew how to split hairs just as is now a days being done by the people, ~~and~~ by government officers ^{or} by the ~~Layers~~ - Lawyers.

Sun, moon, and sacred trees were regarded as most reliable witnesses; scraps of cadjon leaves and papers scribbled upon were regarded as more important documents than stamped paper and registered documents of the present day. Govt. orders were being issued with and even sometimes without definite dates so as to show the cyclic years and era years thus creating doubts as to even the exact cyclic or Salivahana or other era corresponding thereto, while not even the simplest person of the present day would ever fail to show the exact date, month, and year of the era even in common correspondence and does much more carefully show in documents of any importance. To add to these, one easily - imitable letter (ॐ) ^(of) in canarese, in nagari or Tulu etc. used to be the usual signature for all persons. (Kings and Mathadipaties etc.) Even in these - advanced days mere verbal evidence of ~~far~~ inferior (& tutored) men ~~and~~ is admitted and inferences are drawn therefrom concerning even life and death.

that though no mention is made in the records yet these and several other insignia were being used by various mutts.

E.V₁.

E.V₂. Even De'an Purnayya's
and other letter
contain no year.
but only month
and day.

12. Therefore in drawing inferences from and judging people or events of a certain period, conscientious judges have to and do also, transfer, their minds fully to circumstances prevailing during the periods under consideration.

E W₁
E W₂

Thus mentioning in detail all the insignia

etc. in the rahadaries and calling the various mutts etc. by one ^{undubious} Uniform name was not considered absolutely necessary even by the Government at the time. Much more important Govt. orders also of former times were unduly brief.

E.F., E.V.1.
E.72.

13. Some time ago the Government of Mysore through its Amildars seems to have asked various mutts to furnish lists of all the insignia and privileges they were enjoying and some mutts furnished them when available and got their Rahadaris too altered while this Ch. K.V. Mutt was not then in Mysore Territories. Its incompetent agent one Gylur Kadirappa seems to have also furnished such a statement in reply to Channapatna Dy. Amildar's No.187 mentioning these insignia and some others which however ~~were~~ was not a complete one. This statement does not appear to have been transmitted by the then Dy. Amildar of Channapatna to the Govt. nor did this and the other incompetent agents of Channapatna Vyasaraj mutt care for pushing the matter to the very end.

E.X.

14. Again the encl. E.U. which is a comparative statement ~~where~~ shows when and how each mutt went on adding its old insignia ~~as~~ ^{and} it liked especially the Sosale V.R.V.S. Mutt and how this Ch.K.V. mutt Rahadaris were kept perfectly stationary without altering its old entries. Both the Sosale V.R.V.S mutt and the Ch.K.V. Mutt had only such short Rahadaries as are shown. ^eWhat ~~now~~ authorities did grant ~~or~~ authorised the addition of all the details that now appear in the Rahadaries of 1859, ^{and} 1913 [^] in the subsequent ones cannot at all be traced. Therefore, all these additional insignia

Rahadaries of the earliar years did not specify them

15. The cause of such ^astagnation in this mutt Rahadaries is traceable practically to a similar misrepresentation made by the selfsame V.R.V.S. mutt even though that mutt had not yet established itself fully and finally in the Mysore province at Sosale about 2 centuries back., and the dreadful and ruinous consequences that befel this Ch.K.V. Mutt even though it had established itself in Mysore for over 300 years before the Sosale V.R.V.S. mutt came into Mysore to establish its Head quarters in Sosale or in all 500 years before now.

16. To relate in breif the histories of these two mutts and of one or two such misrepresentations of former times by this Sosale V.R.V.S. Mutt and their effects on this meek pious, and ever unobetrusive Ch.K.V. Mutt:-

i. Madvacharya's trunk mutt bifurcated into 2 branches in about 1393 A.D. (1315 S.S.) when ~~Raj~~ Rajendra, who was ordained and sent out on tour stopped away without rejoining and succeeding in ~~the~~ Madvacharya's trunk mutt.

ii. This Rajendra started a new mutt of his own.

iii. It was called Rajendra Mutt from Rajendra

iv. This Ch.K.V. Mutt is the original Rajendra Mutt.

v. He was given the Madvacharyas God Idol Narasimha which figures on the right hand corner of this mutt letter head.

vi. His successor was Jayadwaja.

vii. His third descendant was Purushothama theertha of Abbur.

viii. His fourth descendant was Brahmanya theertha of Abbur who found the God idol Vitthala, shown at the left hand corner of the letter head.

ix. Through this Bramahanya Theertha's blessings a dead Brahmin named Ramacharya was revived and his wife who wanted to burn herself as a Sati was thus saved from self innuolation. She gave birth to Vyasaraja or Vyasatheertha, after some time i.e. in A.D. 1446 or S.S. 1368.

Ordained as a babe Sanyasi in Channapatna by Bramhanya Thirtha and succeeded also to his pontifical seat in Aobur and Channapatna in A.D. 1467 or S.S. 1389.

xi. This Vyasaraja ^adremt and obtained for himself ~~and~~ the God Idol that was 5000 years old that danced to the tune of Vyasaraja and stopped in an uneque cross legged position according to Vyasaraja's request at the end of the dance and is therefore called Vyasamunivarada Rugmini Satya Bhama Sameta VenuGopala Krishna and now appears in Sreenivasa Thirtha was succeeded by Rama Thirtha.

It was after this Ramathirtha's death that (Rajendra and) Vyasaraja's Mutt ^{branched off into two of the so-called V.R.V.S. Mutt} came into existence with Sree Lakshmi-kantha Theertha the 4th from Vyasaraja in this branch mutt as its founder, and the ^{5th} new branch mutt was then called Lakshmikantha Mutt. This branch too had become, it appears, defunct, with Lakshmikantha's successor Sreepathi theertha and was rejuvenated by Kambalu Ramachandra Theertha, the third Guru in that branch line, (just as Majjigehalli mutt too had become defunct. and has been rejuvenated through the aid of Ch.K.V. Mutt.)

This Kambalu Ramachandra Theertha the 5th from Vyasaraja was a very highly learned pandit and won several victories over his opponents and disgraced such vanquished opponents. Therefore he was sought to be murdered by one of the defeated and disgraced opponents by means of dropping a stone from a tree-top on the head of Ramachandra Theertha. Ramachandra Theertha narrowly escaped and this stone is still placed on his head over the Brindavanam at Vellore to commemorate the above mentioned events. This Ramachandra Thirtha is said to have frankly confessed when people and - Rajas of his time i.e. between A.D. 1578 and 1650 stated that his mutt was not Vyasaraja mutt because there were neither the Vyasamunivarada Rugmini Satya Bhama sameta Veenugopala Krishna God idol of Vyasaraja nor any idol of Madhvachary's in his mutt, by saying and thus ~~and~~ admitting "Vagbommale bommulu; Ragibommalo yemundi." i.e., "The true God idol" is "the idol of learning or knowledge,"^{1/k} what is there in copper idols?" This mutt was first called after him as Ramachandra Mutt (even to this day it goes by that name in some places). Some time later on his mutt came to be called ^{as} ~~on~~ Vyasaraja's Vidyasimhasanadhiswara mutt, because this swami relied upon his vidya or learning only as the figurative throne for the kingdom of his mutt as apposed to the kingdom of Vidyanagar for Ch.K.V. Mutt.

N.N.

O.O.

P.P.

This History or rather now a mere a tradition every conscientious Brahmin who has a knowledge of the origins of mutts knows. Thus the Sosali V.R.V.S. mutt is a branch of Ch.K.V. Mutt. and

K.K..

Hundreds of grey-haired and God-fearing men may be found all over India who ~~de~~pose to the above and records to bear out this tradition to some extent. The reasons for such a figurative designation need not be detailed, additionally now.

17. The petition of Kundapur Ryots also describes this version as the essence of the ~~deposition~~ deposition of the Swamy of Ch.K.V. Mutt in the Munsiff's and other courts of North Canara, and ^{Please see} the Government endorsements thereon also.

E.C.

Wealth and influence of the Sosale V.R.V.S. mutt have thrown the original mutt much into the shadow especially since the time of Dewan Purnayya who was a close and influential relative of swamies of Sosale V.R.V.S. mutt and who therefore induced this V.R.V.S. mutt to come from Kumbhakonam side to settle finally and firmly in Sosale, and also helped it in various ways.

However, which is the original and which the branch mutt are the points that need not be pressed upon the attention of the Govt. now. For the present purpose it will suffice to - simply show by the numerous records tracable in various Govt. offices and mutts etc. submitted with this Mutt No. 1244 dated 8-2-24 and resubmitted now also which clearly prove that this Ch. K.V. Mutt is indisputably a Vyasaramut whether original or branch, and that the attempt of the Sosale V.R.V.S. mutt as traced from E.A., E.E., E.B., etc. to prove that it by itself is the only - Vyasaramut in the face of numerous indisputable proofs of records from various Govts. etc. is a futile if not a malicious one, that ~~it~~ is being made got up in order to deprive the Ch.K.V. Mutt of its due share of ~~its~~ insignia and other kinds of recognition.

Q.Q.. Yet even Purnayya's Inam settlement records show that this Ch.K.V. Mutt - called briefly by various names is a Vyasaramut. SS. SS.

E. His restoration of this mutt idol and his letter in reply to the collector of Dharwar Viz. Z. prove the above and ~~other~~ ^{other} obvious facts.

18. The Sosale V.R.V.S. Mutt had attempted at even ^{is} ext~~er~~ipating this mutt as will be obvious from numerous similar misrepresentations on former occasions. One such daring attempt was made in the time of H.H. Sree Krishnarajawodiyar I. That Maharaja had also similarly and summarily ordered that the property and God idols etc. of this Ch.K.V. Mutt should be wrested from the Mathadipati Sree Lakshmi Dharatheertha (of {Ch.K.V.}) Mutt at Channapatna briefly called Channapatna Mutt, and handed over to the Sosale V.R.V.S. Mutt as if that itself was the only (or rather the original) Vyasaramutt. Two Maharajas viz., Sree Krishnarajawodiyar I and Chamarajawodiyar VII died in the meanwhile.

E.E.

However at last Sree Krishnarajawodiyar II considered the representations of the Ch.K.V. Mutt and arbitrators of various mutts then assembled in the court of Krishnarajawodiyar II, pronounced that the Sosale V.R.V.S. mutt was altogether - wrong in its presumptions and ~~that~~ the Maharaja Krishnarajawodiyar II was kind and just enough to order the restoration of the properties and God idols of this mutt by a similar Royal Mandate again in Sidharthi 1739 A.D. after some 13 years trouble.

E.F.

19. As soon as this restoration took place this Sree Lakshmi Dharatheertha of Ch.K.V. Mutt left Mysore province (fearing further troubles of various kinds) and he and his successors began touring in South and the North of India and earned many inams in all of which inam Sannads this mutt has been described only as the (original) Vyasaramutt, though for brevity's sake and for mere - identification it has been called Channapatna Mutt,

24. Mr. Lakshmi Narasimha Rao, B.A., B.L., Dy. Comptroller of Mysore Government a respectable deciple also of this Guru and of v.R.V.S. mutt when employed as a Sarwadhikari or Chief Agent of this V.R.V.S. Mutt ^{at 2000} has published in Kalabhinani of the year 1915 Nov. and December Page 10., the above mentioned account viz. that Vyasaraaja earned the Mahammadan insignia from the Mahammadan Emperor of Delhi. This Emperor was Abdur Shaw.

25. The Ch.K.V. Mutt also says the same.

26. But this original order granting the insignia 428 years ago has been produced neither by the Sosale V.R.V.S. Mutt which had not at all come into existance then and could also never reasonably possess it, nor by this Ch.K.V. Mutt.

The Ch.K.V.Mutt appears to have possessed this original order and also the subsequent Raha dari (in original) of Shaw Alum the last of Mogul Emperors. Persons who had seen these Persian documents ^{with the Ch.K.V. Mutt} are still alive in various places which ^{Ch.K.V} the Mutt visited. [^]

E.X.

27. This important fact has also been mentioned by this Ch.K.V. Mutt's agent in reply to the No. 187 of the Deputy Amildar of Channapatna Taluk. E.X.

28. Both these documents and several other important records of this Mutt have been misappropriated by a Mukhami or agent called Gopalaswamy Rao, from the Sosale V.R.V.S. Mutt when that agent ^{was} ~~warned~~ himself by numerous insinuations from the year 1896 into the heart of a simple swamy of Ch.K.V. Mutt, and succeeded also in getting himself employed as a (Chief) power of attorneyed agent of this Ch.K.V.Mutt by that simple (ton) swami Viz. Lakshmi Priyatheertha of Ch..K.V. Mutt in the year 1899, who thoughtlessly believed this Mukami to be a pious and competent Agent likely to be faithful to him after having become apparently dissatisfied with and left his former employer the Sosale V.R.V.S. Mutt. He proved treacherous. He misappropriated the records etc. of this Ch.K.V. Mutt (for obtaining heavy ransoms or for selling them away to the rival Sosale V.R. V.S. Mutt whose chief agent and adherent too he formerly was).

V.V.V.

W.W.W.

29. Thus the Sosale V.R.V.S. Mutt is attempting for over $3\frac{1}{2}$ ~~years~~ centuries to proclaim itself as the only Vyasaraaja mutt by various means but has not succeeded. (and its name was almost not heard off in northern and middle India nor its existence known to many for a long time.)

30. After the attempts of V.R.V.S. Mutt at Sosali failed in 1739 A.D. again similar attempts were made in 1774 A.D. in the time of Nawab - Hyder Ali Khan. That Nawab too had to decide that both the Mutts are of long standing sanyasés and that they should remain as they were till then, and that the Sosale V.R.V.S. Mutt should no more take the name of Ch.K.V. Mutt called in brief Kundapur (Channapatna) Mutt. (See also the list showing the various designations by which various mutts have been called in various parts and in various times and in various important records such as E.1. Inam the important Title Deeds etc. of one and the same Government.)

File No. 37.

F.F.

31. In spite of these reverses warnings and this previous history as soon as these get faded from the memory of officers in power, the Sosale V.R.V.S. Mutt seems to renew its attempts at doing some kind of harm or other to the Ch.K.V. Mutt whose Mathadhipathies have not been continuously securing agents competent enough to manage its affairs properly and are therefore suffering from troubles of the kind now and then. Besides these, ^{records} 120 now referred to there are [^] numerous other records, too numerous and unnecessary as well as inadvisable to submit and trouble the Government now.

32. It is said that some of the devoted and influential disciples of Sosale V.R.V.S. Mutt - even instigated the theft of the long coveted - chief and unique Vyasa (Raja) Munivarada Rugmini Satyabhamasameta Venugopala Krishna Idol ever in possession of Ch.K.V. Mutt (except the short period of 1726 to 1739 A.D. when they had been wrested by a Royal Mandate. ^{and} one of the simple and credulous disciples of Ch.K.V. Mutt who was in charge of the Box containing these Idols and who yielded to the instigation abovementioned robbed and hid it in a manure heap in the house of one of the instigators in Channapatna. He was got convicted. The then simple vaidika managers of this Ch.K.V. Mutt merely wrote to the Chief - Commissioner that the abettors have been unjustly left off and contented themselves with having - secured their box with Idols almost in-tact - (through the police) without pushing the matter to the very end just as many ^{may now} even have to do.

S.B.S.

33. Thus the Sosale V.R.V. Mutt has been cherishing ill feelings towards (the original) Ch.K.V. Mutt for over 350 years nearly or since it came into existence.

34. Therefore, it is prayed that action should not be taken on the one sided versions of the Sosale V.R.V.S. Mutt just as in the case under review and other earlier cases cited, above and the meek and pious Sanyasees of (the original) Channapatna Kundapur (real) Vidyanagara Karnataka Simhasanarudha Vyasaraja Mutt troubled hereafter ^{hitherto} at least as they have been troubled :-

i. for nearly 13 years in the times of their Highness ^{ex} Sree Krishnarajawodiyar I, Sree Chamarajendra Wodiyar VII till the Sree Krishnarajawodiyar II redressed the grievances.

ii. For some years in the time of Nawab Hyder Ali Khan and

iii. For nearly 20 years now, ~~in as much as~~ ^{in as much as} ~~all~~ the statements made in the petition No. 43 referred to above of the Sosale V.R.V.S. Mutt have been proved to be untenable and ~~that~~ the Swamy of Abbur is no Ravanasyase but a true Ch.K. Vyasaraja Mutt Swamy.

Also E.A., E.B., E.C., E.D.,

35. THE SUMMARY, of the Representations is :-

(a) That though the Sosale V.R.V.S. Mutt claim to be the only Vyasaraja Mutt, yet it is not so. There are two Vyasaraja Mutts. Vide irrefutable evidences of the file No. 37 E.

(b) That the insignia were not earned by any of its Gurus after it has branched off but by the common ~~and~~ ancestor Sree Vyasaraja - according to the versions of both the mutts and were also being enjoyed by both the offspring mutts till 1908 to 09 when ^{at the} insinuation of the Sosale V.R.V.S. mutt, the Ch.K.V. Mutt was - prevented from using these mamool insignia by the Government Order No. 4874 dated 30-4-1908 provisionally issued without enquiry at all of the parties at the time.

The confession of the Sosale mutt itself in E.A., L.B.

(c) That the investigations till now held show that neither mutt has produced the original order of Delhi Emperors granting these mahamadan insignia.

(d) That the Sosale V.R.V.S. Mutt has produced no authoritative document to conclusively prove that it had the exclusive right of using them.

(e) But that the Ch.K.V. Mutt seems to have possessed the Delhi Emperor's order of Hizar 1915 and even a subsequent Rahadari of Shaw Alam the last Delhi Emperor and shows reasons and records for its having lost the originals through the mischief of the Chief Agent of Sosale V.R.V. S. Mutt himself, who was thoughtlessly employed as the Agent of this Ch.K.V. Mutt also and entrusted with all its records etc. etc. by a simple (ton) Swamy of this Ch.K.V. Mutt.

(f) That the old Rahadaris of both the Mutts were quite similar and brief and in fact the Rahadaris of Ch.K.V. Mutt contained even some more honours than those of Sosale V.R.V.S. Mutt.

(g) This Ch.K.V. Mutt has produced lahazars signed by hundreds of respectable persons such as the famous Mr. Abdul Qudus of Channapatna the famous Mr. Belur Thammaiaya Coffee planter and other similar gentlemen of various other places ^{where} ~~were~~ during the visits of Ch. K.V. Mutt Swamys, the insignia in question were used by the Ch.K.V. Mutt till 1908 in addition to the official reports of the Amildar of Anekal and Dy. Commissioner of Bangalore Dist. said to have been submitted to the Government in April 1906⁹

(h) Therefore, in equity, both the Vyasa rajas (original) mutts at Channapatna, Abbur and Vyasarajas Vidyasimhasadheswar (Branch) mutt at Sosale should continue to enjoy according to the old mamools the ancestral insignia as before and the ban placed by the Govt. Order No. 4674 dated 30-4-08 on the Ch.K.V. Mutt (through the ill conceived misrepresentation made by the Sosale V.R.V.S. Mutt in its petition No. 43 and proved also to be such now) should be removed and the suffering caused (through the inadvertence of - some officer) to the Guroos of this Ch.K.V. Mutt be terminated after 20 years at least.

36. This prayer for (a) simply removing the ban placed by mistake. (b) for restoring the simple and long enjoyed insignia to the Ch.K.V. Mutt and (c) for putting an end to the mischief and disgrace caused by the printed promulgation of the Sosale V.R.V.S. Mutt and (d) the evil consequences thereof but not (e) for conferring any new unusual honours upon the Ch.K.V. Mutt, (f) involves no deprivation or harm to the Sosale V.R.V.S. Mutt nor to any body else. (g) and - therefore can easily and equitably be granted.

Hoping to be favoured by this simple act of true and pure justice of merely restoring the old honours of the Ch.K.V. Mutt and thanking you,

thanking you,

I beg to remain,

S i r,

Your most obedient and humble servant

Mijal BA.L.C.E

Hony. Agent, Channapatna Kundapur,
